The endorsements and addenda mentioned above provide information on restrictions imposed on all these plans.

2. ANNUITANT

The Annuitant is the Policyholder and may, under certain conditions, exercise rights to which he or she is entitled, excluding changing an irrevocable beneficiary.

3. SPOUSE

The term "Spouse" herein refers only to persons who are recognized as spouses or common-law partners for the purposes of the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada) regarding registered retirement savings plans or registered retirement income funds.

Daily Interest Account (DIA)

► Death Benefit - Annuity

Annuity Certain

An annuity certain provides the Annuitant an income for a specified term. If the Annuitant dies before the term ends, payments continue to be made to the designated beneficiary for the remainder of the term.

Life Annuity

If the Annuitant dies before the end of the guarantee period, the Company shall continue to pay the annuity to the beneficiary until the end of the guarantee period. The plan also requires commutation of any annuity payable under the plan which would otherwise become payable to a person other than the Annuitant.

Joint Life Annuity

If the Annuitant dies before the end of the guarantee period, the Company shall continue to pay the annuity to his or her Spouse until the end of the guarantee period. At the end of the guarantee period, the Company shall continue to pay the annuity to the Spouse for the rest of his or her life, the amount of the annuity depending on the survivor annuity percentage. If the Annuitant and his or her Spouse both die before the end of the guarantee period, the Company shall continue to pay the annuity to the beneficiary until the end of the guarantee period. The plan also requires commutation of any annuity payable under the plan which would otherwise become payable to a person other than the Annuitant (Annuitant also meaning a Spouse who has become the Annuitant).

8. ANNUITY

If the contract is issued as a registered plan or a registered fund, the retirement savings plan endorsement or the retirement income fund endorsement defines restrictions and limitations of the Contract. If the Contract is issued as a locked-in plan, the addendum applicable to the appropriate pension plan legislation defines additional restrictions and limitations of the Contract.

When you retire, you may purchase a single or joint life annuity or any other type of annuity we offer at that time. You must make your selection in writing before payment of the annuity starts. If you do not make a choice, the Company shall pay a retirement income in the form of a single life annuity based on the life of the Policyholder with a five-year guarantee and annual payments calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Annuity purchase price X 12}}{[25 + (11 \times \{110 - \text{Annuitant's age on the conversion date}\})]}$$

Other types of annuities are available. Depending on the type of annuity you select, annual payments will be actuarially adjusted based on the effective rate on the conversion date, the guarantee period and whether you have selected a joint or single life annuity.

Before the life annuity commencement date, you must provide proof of your age, and your Spouse's age in case of a joint life annuity. The Company may require proof that an annuitant is living before making any life annuity payments. Retirement income payments may not be surrendered or transferred during the lifetime of the Annuitant or his/her Spouse, if any.

9. NONPARTICIPATING CONTRACT

The Contract does not entitle you to a share in Company surpluses and is thus a nonparticipating Contract.

10. TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP OR ASSIGNMENT

The Company will not recognize any assignment or transfer of ownership of this contract unless the Company's head office is notified of it in writing. In addition, the Company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any such transfer of ownership or assignment.

11. TRANSACTION CONFIRMATION

The Company shall issue a transaction confirmation within three weeks. To guarantee the validity of the entries in your file, please inform Head Office in case of any delay.

12. DEPOSITS

A fee shall be charged for any payment returned for insufficient funds. We reserve the right to modify this fee.

The Annuitant agrees that he or she is bound by the terms and conditions of the locking-in addendum, which forms an integral part of this Contract.

8. BACK-END CHARGE

In case of surrender or transfer of a GIC, a back-end charge may apply.

RETIREMENT SAVING PLAN ENDORSEMENT (UNIFLEX)

If the contract is registered as a registered retirement savings plan under Section 146 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) or under application provincial laws or regulations, it is subject to the following provisions.

1. SPOUSE

The term "Spouse" herein refers only to persons who are recognized as spouses or common-law partners for the purposes of the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada) regarding registered retirement savings plans or registered retirement income funds.

2. RETIREMENT INCOME

The Contract must be converted to retirement income by December 31st of the calendar year in which you turn 71 (maturity).

Under subsection 146 (1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), you may elect to receive your retirement income in one of the following forms:

You must specify in writing the form of annuity you have selected before the beginning of the annuity payments. Otherwise, the Company shall pay a retirement income in the form of a single life annuity based on your life with a 5-year guaranteed period.

3. CONVERSION OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

The Plan does not provide for the payment of any benefit after maturity except: by way of retirement income to the Annuitant, to the Annuitant in full or partial commutation of retirement income under the Plan, in respect of a commutation referred to in paragraph 146(2) (c.2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

4. PAYMENTS TO THE ANNUITANT

The Plan provides for payment to the Annuitant of a retirement income in accordance with paragraph 146(2) (b.1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada). ### 5. ASSIGNMENT OR PLEDGE

Retirement benefits payable under the Contract may not be assigned or pledged in whole or in part.

6. EXCESS CONTRIBUTIONS

The provisions of this endorsement notwithstanding, the Company shall, on request and on presentation of the Contract for addition of an endorsement, if necessary, refund all or part of any excess contributions in a given year as defined in paragraph 146(2) (c.1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and, where applicable, the corresponding provisions of any provincial tax laws, but not exceeding the retirement savings portion of the premium paid by the taxpayer during the year or the cash surrender value (including the value of any dividends) of the Contract on the date of the refund.

7. WITHDRAWALS

The Plan does not provide for the payment of any benefits before maturity other than a payment to the Annuitant after deduction of applicable taxes.

8. STATUTES GOVERNING THE CONTRACT

The Contract is an annuity contract governed by the Insurances Act (Quebec) and approved as a retirement savings plan under the Income Tax Act (Canada). No advantage that is conditional on the existence of the Contract may be extended to the Annuitant or to a person with whom the Annuitant was not dealing at arm's length.

9. DEATH SETTLEMENT

If the Annuitant dies before maturity of the Plan, a taxable lump sum payment equal to the market's value of the Annuitant's Contract, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, will be paid to his beneficiary of, if there is none, to his estate.

Subject to and in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada), in lieu of receiving a taxable lump sum payment, the Annuitant's Spouse may elect to convert the Annuitant's Contract into an annuity or to transfer the death benefit to a retirement savings plan or to a retirement income fund.

10. MODIFICATION

No modification shall have the effect of causing plan deregistration.

In case of conflicting or diverging provisions, the provisions of this endorsement and of the Income Tax Act (Canada) shall take precedence over provisions included in or added to the Contract.

2. PAYMENTS

The Company shall make only those payments provided for in paragraphs 146.3(2) (d) and 146.3(2) (e), subsection 146.3(14) and the definition of "retirement income fund" in subsection 146.3(1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

3. SPOUSE

4. ASSIGNMENT OR PLEDGE

Payments hereunder may not be assigned or pledge in whole or in part.

5. TRANSFER

As required under paragraph 146.3(2) (e) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Annuitant may transfer (before conversion to a life annuity) the surrender value of the RIF to another registered retirement income fund.

At the time of the transfer, the Company shall withhold a sum sufficient to pay to the Annuitant the minimum amount for the current year in compliance with the Income Tax Act (Canada).

However, in case of transfer to another contract offered by the Company, the investment options of deposits that have not yet matured may, on request, be retained.

6. COMPENSATION

According to paragraph 146.3 (2) (c) of Income Tax Act (Canada):

- ▶ The Company has no right of offset as regards the property held in connection with the Fund (see definition below) in respect of any debt or obligation owing to the Company
- ▶ The property held in connection with the fund cannot be pledged, assigned or in any way alienated as security for a loan or for any purpose other than that of the Company making payments to the Annuitant as described above.

Except when the Annuitant's Spouse becomes the annuitant under the Fund, the Company will, if the Annuitant dies, distribute the property held in connection with the Fund at the time of the Annuitant's death or an amount equal to the value of such property at that time.

7. BENEFITS

No benefit or loan that is conditional in any way on the existence of the Fund may be extended to the Annuitant or to a person with whom the Annuitant was not dealing at arm's length.

8. REGULATIONS

The Fund must comply with regulations of the Governor in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister of Finance.

9. PROPERTY HELD IN CONNECTION WITH THE FUND

Property held in connection with the Fund as used herein means the value of property held by the Company for the Fund, plus the value of earnings from that property that are relevant in determining the amount payable to the Annuitant under the Fund.

10. DEATH SETTLEMENT

If the Annuitant dies before conversion of his Contract into a life annuity, the payments will cease and a taxable lump sum payment equal to the market's value of the Annuitant's Contract, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, will be paid to his beneficiary or, if there is none, to his estate.

Subject to and in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada), in lieu of receiving a taxable lump sum payment, the Annuitant's Spouse may elect to convert the Annuitant's Contract into an annuity or to transfer the death benefit to a retirement savings plan or to a retirement income fund.

11. MODIFICATION

No modification shall have the effect of causing plan deregistration.

In case of conflicting or diverging provisions, the provisions of this endorsement and of the Income Tax Act (Canada) shall take precedence over provisions included in or added to the Contract.
